Bones of Skeleton Creek (A Buck McDivit Psychic Cowboy Detective Thriller): A Thriller in Paranormal Oklahoma Eric Wilder

Oklahoma P.I. Buck McDivit is more than a detective. Much more. Something evil is haunting the rural countryside north of sprawling Oklahoma City. A wealthy rancher thinks it's a black panther killing his cows, and maybe one of his men. He hires psychic cowboy detective Buck McDivit to check it out. On the trail of the paranormal shape shifter, Buck knocks heads with a gang of cattle rustlers that is into oil theft, dog fighting and crystal meth. He also meets the gorgeous psychic shaman priestess of a pagan compound situated deep in the blackjacks of central Oklahoma. The people of the village called Lycaia practice a form of ancient American Indian mysticism and spiritualism. They are called the Southern Death Cult. Esme has a giant wolf dog named Princess, a rattlesnake tattoo on her shoulder, and is the last surviving member of the Native American Mississippian Indian tribe. Or is she? As Buck closes on the answer, his senses become blurred as the ghost shifter singles him out for death. He must fight for his life in this modern-day Western thriller where ghosts, action and adventure come face to face with spirit shifters, supernatural mysteries and paranormal suspense. Bones of Skeleton Creek is the second book in Eric Wilder's Psychic Cowboy Detective Series that includes Ghost of a Chance.
