Typing In The Cash is an informative book by the number one bestselling author Ashton Bazer. He gives practical and easy to follow tips and ideas about making money online using different methods which have been tested and proven. These dozens of ideas can help you if you are out of a job, don't want to have a job/boss, or need extra income. Some of the ideas can be one time jobs that guarantee payment while others have been known to create massive income. There are options for all skill levels and for nearly all ages.

This book is perfect for:

- * Seniors who want to supplement their retirement income
- * Teens who want to earn good money without having to flip burgers
- * Entrepreneurial people who could do a few of the ideas and create a reasonable (or even lucrative) income by being their own boss
- * Adults who could use an easy few hundred (or thousand) dollars each month to supplement their income
- * College students who would like to make enough money to pay their tuition and more

This book is not good for:

- * Those hoping for a no-work get-rich-quick scheme
- * Lazy/unmotivated people (although some jobs don't require much time)
- * People who are scared of working for themselves
- * Those who are not comfortable using their computer or internet
