NYPD Red: A Detailed Summary About NYPD Red Book 1 !

NYPD Red is an action-crime-thriller novel, written by American writer James Patterson. He also wrote NYPD Red II and NYPD Red III and they also proved to be successful bestselling novels. The novel is about NYPD Red as the title suggests, special task force whose job is to protect the wealthiest and the most powerful citizens. When a world-famous movie producer is poisoned on the first day of a Manhattan film festival called Hollywood on the Hudson, they are the first ones called and that is when we first meet two novel's protagonists - Detective First Grade Zach Jordan and his new partner-and ex-girlfriend-Detective Kylie MacDonald and here the novel begins. What happens at the end of it, who was the man who poisoned the producer and why is explained in the summary.

The author is definitely not a rookie in the terms of writing; he sold more than 300 million copies of his novels and considering Guinness World Record, he is the most successful bestseller of New York Times. According to the subject of a Time magazine feature called, "The Man Who Can't Miss," James Patterson is the bestselling author of the 2014, bar none, with more than 16 million books sold in North America alone. In 2007, one of every fifteen hardcover fiction books sold was a Patterson title. In the past three years, James has sold more books than any other author (according to Bookscan), and in total, James's books have sold an estimated 220 million copies worldwide. He is the first author to have #1 new titles simultaneously on The New York Times adult and children's lists and is the only author to have five new hardcover novels debut at #1 on the list in one year—a record-breaking feat he's accomplished every year since 2005.
