Since we are born we are gendered and taught from the media and our mothers that there is an ideal partner for us to search and find somewhere in the world. Movies and TV shows present endless examples of a perfect romance forming with a person that happens to be the one for us above all others. As we grow into adults and start our own search for our perfect partners, we start to recognize that we have to kiss a lot of frogs before we find our prince. The real world does not match the fairy tale that Walt Disney sold us as children. We must adapt our expectations to look at our potential partners as humans, imperfect just like us.

This book intends on helping women understand how their current perspective is hindering them from recognizing the partners all around them that might be willing to be a part of their world. You deserve to be happy and loved by a partner that will value you in their life and work to make you know they want you. Let's see how the Ethan Gregory Approach can make you understand that you matter most in a relationship. If you are hoping to find a partner, you must read this book before you waste another second going down the wrong dating paths.

If you liked He's Just Not That Into You and Modern Romance, then you will love this book! The make your choice aspect of the book adds an element of fun to the instruction that other dating books don't have.

Dr. Ethan Gregory keeps it very real. This is a book for grown women, and just like a decent boyfriend, Dr. G doesn't end the book without you getting your needs met. The writing will make you laugh; blush, and most importantly it will make you think about changing your perspective.

Let's learn how to drop the fairy tale and start finding a genuine partner. There are many quality men waiting for you to see them as potential partners, let Dr. G help you break the spell. Remember, you matter most!
