The Story of the Cross: The Stations of the Cross for Children Mary Joslin

The stations of the cross is a traditional way of exploring the Easter story, telling of the last walk that Jesus took to the cross and the people whom he encountered on the way. The walk is re-enacted each Friday in Jerusalem, and in churches worldwide, especially on Good Friday. In this book, the story is retold for children, along with simple prayers of response making it an ideal resource for those who walk the stations of the cross with children, as well as those who need a book-based alternative.
