Moore Ruble Yudell - Making Place (The Master Architect Series VI) John Ruble

Since founding Moore Ruble Yudell with Charles Moore in 1977, principals John Ruble and Buzz Yudell have built a varied body of work that ranges from private residences to multi-million-dollar institutional, civic and mixed-use developments. The initial goal of Moore Ruble Yudell was to have an intensive collaboration among the principals, and as the firm has grown, this idea has remained its highest priority, with the collaborative spirit extending to include project staff and clients. Making Place includes an extended essay by Buzz Yudell and John Rubell that explores their principles and passions, and the broader view of architecture that sustains their work. Further insight into the firm's work is gained through the richly illustrative graphics and photography, offering a timely view into the rapidly evolving work of this internationally recognised and influential firm.
