End of the Line Layla Cole

18+ | Length: 21,800 word novella

The world's ending, and Julian probably shouldn't waste time lusting after his best friend. Turns out the apocalypse has a way of rearranging a guy's priorities, though, and all he can think about is Cory—gorgeous, strong, Cory, who's straight, just like Julian. Or is he? With the tension crackling between them, Julian doesn't know what to think.

When the two of them are stranded on the West Coast with the world-changing Blight right behind them, Julian starts wondering about missed opportunities and first times. If one night is all they have, he's determined to make it count. Of course, that only works if he can manage to figure out how he feels--and if Cory can do the same, before they lose their chance forever.
