Adventures in Shelving William Peak

Adventures in Shelving offers a selection of William Peak's popular library columns, originally published in The Star Democrat and reprinted here with that paper's generous permission. At times humorous, at times wise, Peak's writing is always thoughtful and entertaining. He gives us a living, breathing portrait of the people of Talbot County and the very special place where they come together to learn and better themselves: the Talbot County Free Library. All proceeds from the sale of Adventures in Shelving benefit the Talbot County Free Library and the people it serves.
