Draw Me a Picture (Montgomery Family Series Book 1) L. R. Styles

After being fired & blacklisted from her accounting job in New York City, Michelle Gregory vends drawings on a Midtown Manhattan corner in order to eat. Lonely, she draws the portrait of an Englishman, who walks by her corner--each day--at exactly six minutes past noon. William Montgomery sees the portrait and eventually the two meet. Michelle's estranged, eccentric uncle, however is William's new boss. Having finally been re-united with his only niece, Oscar McLane is determined to find out if the Englishman is good enough for her. Book One of a series.

Warning: this book contains both substance and cliches, sweetness and morality.
