Remembering the Boys: A Collection of Letters, a Gathering of Memories Lynna Piekutowski

In this touching collection of eloquent letters between alumni of the Western Reserve Academy serving in WW II and its headmaster, Joel Hayden, the story of the loneliness, boredom, hardships and dangers of military life is told by the young men serving on the frontlines. Meanwhile, the students and staff lead a lively, active war effort dedicated to supporting their classmates (and 11 of the teachers) fighting overseas. Remembering the Boys poignantly captures that extraordinary time. . .and place.
