Shattered Vows Steven R. Drennon

Middle-aged newlyweds Mark and Allison seem to have everything they could ever desire, until the day that Allison is shot to death in a public parking lot and dies in Mark's arms. Mark grieves over the senseless "random" death of his wife, until the day he receives a call from the killer, who has called to apologize. He then tells Mark that the reason he is apologizing is that Mark was the intended target! Now Mark has to figure out who the killer is before he becomes the next victim.
