Her Divine Destiny, (Cherry Blossom Garden)”

Azalea's dreams would lead her from being a single-hardworking Mom, who was just a seamstress in a dress factory; to becoming an educated, successful and prominent Fashion Designer. Her desires would lead her to seek love with the wrong men. Winston Sanders was the first of these two men. Winston's only interest in Azalea was the lust of the eye, and the lust of the flesh. After relationship of lies and deception by Winston, she'd then meet Jacque Marquette. Although Jacque had strong feelings for Azalea, his passion for her exotic beauty, and sensuous curves was what held his interest. Azalea's passions that she'd concealed inside for so long, because of past pain from men she'd trusted, would lead her to the "love of her life;" the handsome and ambitious Lane Jenson. Although Azalea's would later come to believe that she had everything in life she could have dreamed of having, there still remained a void. "Surely there must be more to life," she thought. "Is there another purpose if I am to find true fulfillment?" Suddenly, like a strong wind that blows, warning of a storm coming, fate steps in. Azalea's seemingly perfect world is turned upside down; rocking its very foundation. Would the path Azalea had taken, be enough to see her through the trials she was about to encounter, or would the path God had chosen for her life ultimately lead to "Her Divine Destiny?"
