Eric has trouble with the voc tech side of higher education and is fired from his first job as a college administrator. His former college roommate from Yale hires him as academic dean at a small college in Upstate New York. He moves to the area and buys a beautiful Greek Revival house in the country. One day, while walking, he meets one of his neighbors; she is walking a pit bull, who bites him. Thus begins a close friendship and they team up to rescue abandoned and mistreated animals, and join with the local sheriff to stop dog fighting in the county.
